BLUE AND DISCOURAGED

Mrs. Hamilton Tells How She Finally Found Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Warren, Ind.—"I was bothered terribly with female weakness. I had pains and was not regular, my head ached all the time, I had bearing down pains and my back hurt me the biggest part of the time. I was dizzy and had weak feelings when I would stoop over, it hurt me to walk any distance and I felt blue and discouraged."

"I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now in good health. If it had not been for that medicine I would have been in my grave a long time ago."—Mrs. ARTIE E. HAMILTON, R.F.D. No. 6, Warren, Ind.

Another Case. Edmond, R.I.—"I write to tell you how much good your medicine has done me and to let other women know that there is help for them. I suffered with bearing down pains, headache, was irregular and felt blue and depressed all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and commenced to gain in a short time and I am a well woman today. I am on my feet from early morning until late at night running a boarding house and do all my own work. I hope that many suffering women will try your medicine. It makes happier wives and mothers."—Mrs. ANNA HANSEN, Edmond, Rhode Island.

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS

To the Advertiser

Charles de Young, proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle, and son of H. de Young, died at San Francisco last night after an illness of several weeks. He was stricken with typhoid fever; complications followed, and for the past week the family of the sick man were at the bedside, hoping against hope that the end could be averted.

Charles de Young was trained in newspaper work under the direction of his father, who recently transferred the chronicle to him.

Is Hans Schmidt, former counterfeiter and murderer, now held in the Tomb, the same Hans Schmidt who was ordained to the priesthood in Germany five or six years ago, or is the prisoner an imposter, who in some way came into possession of the credentials of the real Father Hans Schmidt?

The belief is expressed in New York that the real Father Hans Schmidt came to his death in Germany, and that the prisoner seized his papers and name and used them to further his own criminal aims.

Political leaders among the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, in national encampment at Chattanooga, Tenn., today admitted that indications pointed to the election of G. E. Adams of Nebraska as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The slate picked as a winner is headed by Adams, and includes W. W. French of Tennessee, for senior vice commander; A. S. Fowler of Arkansas, for junior vice commander, and Rev. Henry M. Carr of Kansas, for chaplain-in-chief.

Jubilant over the victory his lawyers had won in the federal court, Harry K. Thaw, the Mattheau fugitive, left this morning for Concord, where he will remain in the joint custody of Sheriff Holman Drew of Coos county and United States Marshal E. P. Nute until Governor Peck holds a hearing on the application of the state of New York for extradition next Tuesday. A big crowd gathered at the station and cheered Thaw as he boarded the train.

Militant suffragettes today tried to destroy by fire the $50,000 mansion of Lord De Lysle and Dudley at Penhurst Place, Kentishire. The building was only partially destroyed.

Pieces of ribbon bearing the colors of the Women's Social and Political Union were tied to trees on the lawns, and cards bearing the inscription "The lordly Tories could do something useful by helping women get the vote" were scattered about.

The revenue cutter Tacoma has won in a grim race with death. A dispatch received at the treasury department says that the Tacoma has arrived at Seattle with Fred M. Chamberlain, the government naturalist, who was stricken on St. Paul Island, one of the Pribilof group. The Tacoma broke all speed records to reach Mr. Chamberlain.

Letters of sympathy or denunciation, gifts and offers of various kinds are daily pouring in upon Porter Charlton, at Como, Italy, facing trial for alleged murder of his wife. The young prisoner received an offer of marriage from a young girl who said she had fallen in love with his picture.

More than twenty thousand men today are idle, either from strike or lockout, in the great movement of labor unrest which began here with tramway troubles, and spread to England and Scotland. Army police fired upon a crowd of rioting farm laborers near Engleas, fatally wounding a boy, today.

It was learned today that another New York Yacht Club syndicate, to include Fred K. G. Bourne, George F. Baker Jr., and probably C. Oliver Iselin, to back a second Herreshoff boat to compete in the trials for the American cup defender next year is a strong probability.

Cabinet duties will have to wait on the complete recovery of Secretary of the Interior Lane, who collapsed in a grandstand at Oakland on Admission Day. The Secretary chafes under inactivity, but his physician stated that another collapse will follow any attempt to work.

Mrs. Clara Melcher, the laundress alleged to have been brought to this country by Prince Stanislaus Sulowski, this afternoon left Los Angeles for New York in custody of Inspector Keep of San Diego, and will be returned to Vienna.

Secretary of State Bryan today cabled additional instructions to Former Governor Lind at Vera Cruz, based on Provisional President Huerta's message to the Mexican congress. He declines to make public the details of his message to Lind.

The administration is more hopeful of a peaceful solution of the Mexican situation following the absence of anti-American demonstrations during yesterday's celebration of the anniversary of Mexican independence.

The Michelin cup for distance flying was today awarded to Aviator Fournoy, of Paris, who covered 9993 miles between August 25 and September 16. Fournoy flew daily, never once suffering serious mishap.

Harry Quelch, Socialist labor leader, and former editor of Justice, died today in London.

A.-H. FREIGHTERS IN FRUIT TRADE

The American-Hawaiian freighter Missouri, to sail from Honolulu to San Francisco direct within a few days with a part cargo of island products will take on a large quantity of California fruits, destined for transshipment at Tehuantepec for the east coast of the United States.

The movement of Pacific coast fruits is a big factor in the transportation world and it is understood that the American-Hawaiian has entered the lists for a large share of the business.

For some weeks past, freighters in the Pacific triangular service have been departing from the Hawaiian Islands to the California coast, there to complete cargoes of fruits for Salina Cruz.

Six steamships, each with a capacity of 10,000 tons and equipped with refrigerating devices, will sail at Southern California ports following the completion of the Panama canal, according to General Agent Lapham of the American-Hawaiian Steamship company at Los Angeles. The ships will engage in a fast fruit service between New York and will place Southern California in a position to compete with the fruit growers of southern Europe.

Three of the ships that will enter this service now are carrying sugar from the Hawaiian Islands. The other three are being built in a Baltimore ship yard.
